

the k-love stations provides inspiration to our community, and provides an option to hard rock, and new age (senseless) country music, it also has news without commentary on their personal views.